Errata for Braille Formats:

Principles of Print-to-Braille Transcription, 2011

Issued by the Braille Authority of North America

December 2013

This list of errata contains known corrections and clarifications that should be made to the HTML and PDF versions of the publication Braille Formats: Print-to-Braille Transcription, 2011 as posted in April 2012.

Please keep in mind:

The corrections or clarifications in this listing do not change the practices prescribed in the 2011 Braille Formats publication.

Each notation is identified by page number and section number. They are presented in the order that they appear in the publication.

Minor errors or typos that do not change meaning or clarify intent have not been listed here.

We have enclosed punctuation within a quotation when the punctuation is to be included in a formats item. In narratives that describe a change, we have placed the punctuation outside the quotation marks to avoid confusion.

General

“Transcriber's note symbol” should be identified as “transcriber's note indicator” throughout the publication.

Section 1

P. 1-6, §1.4.5, Example 1-4: A period should be inserted at the end of the first sentence, after the word “poetry”.

P. 1-9, §1.7.1: Should read “The complete book title, including a grade level (if indicated in print), subtitle, series title, and edition name or number, appears on the first line(s) of the first page of text in each braille volume.”
P. 1-12, §1.10.2: Should read “When a print page begins at the top of a braille page, the print page number is placed...”.

P. 1-12, §1.10.3c: Should read "Use only one blank line following a page change indicator when the guidelines require a blank line before and after a page change indicator.”

P. 1-13, §1.10.5: Should read “For a number of reasons, a print page may not show a page number, yet it is implied. ...”

P. 1-15, §1.10.8: The following should be added as item d: “When a page is blank or has only an uncaptioned illustration, that page will be combined with the next page on which text occurs.”

P. 1-16, §1.12.1e, Example 1-17: A fifth example should be added to the chart and should read “R1-aR6, [R#A] - [R#F].”

P. 1-16, §1.12.1g: The sample transcriber’s note should read “All page numbers in the text begin with the letter R, which has been omitted.”

P. 1-16 and 1-17, §1.13.1: In the PDF, the repeated language “practice is often seen in math, foreign language, and lower grade” should be removed.

P. 1-17, §1.13.1f, Example 1-20, simulated braille line 11 and line 14: An ellipsis should be added in each line after the word “text”.

P. 1-20, §1.15.5a: Should read “In English context, insert [56] before unusual punctuation or when a punctuation mark could be misread as something other than the meaning intended for it.”

P. 1-23, Sample 1-1, simulated braille: The line numbers should be changed to line 5 through line 14 to indicate the print page transcribed does not start on line 1.

P. 1-24, Sample 1-2, simulated braille: The line numbers should be changed to line 5 through line 12 to indicate the print page transcribed does not start on line 1.

Section 2

P. 2-3, §2.3.4d: Should read “... The series name and edition may be placed on the same line as the title and grade level or subtitle, separated by semicolons. ...”

Section 3
P. 3-2, §3.2.3: Should read “An embedded transcriber’s note is seven words or fewer and may be shown within the text, either before or after the text, or standing alone, e.g. used as a heading.”

Section 4
P. 4-12, §4.9.1: Should read “Icons may be used with headings or within the text to indicate specific types of text, e.g., important facts, essay questions, etc. Use the shape indicator ː unspaced before the appropriate letter(s). . . .”

P. 4-12, §4.9.2: Should read, “Devise an icon when an equivalent braille symbol doesn’t exist. Choose letters that correspond to the icon, e.g., hg for hourglass. Icons may be devised and print followed for placement, e.g., following a heading.”

P. 4-12, §4.9.3a: Should read “When appropriate, the text of the icon headings may be listed. . . .”

P. 4-15, Sample 4-1, simulated braille line 12: The boldface indicators should read as “ːːː.”

P. 4-19, Sample 4-4, simulated braille lines 7 through 12: The material should be displayed, with the heading beginning in cell 9, the quote beginning in cell 3, and the attribution beginning in cell 7.

P. 4-19, Sample 4-4, simulated braille lines 8 through 10: Italics (ːːː) should be removed.

Section 5
P. 5-4, §5.3.3: Should read “Font attributes are ignored for titles of books, poems, plays, etc., that appear as a complete heading. Note: Font attributes are retained when titles of books, poems, plays, etc., are mentioned in the text.”

P. 5-9, §5.4.3a, Example 5-14, simulated braille: The print highlight should be removed from the letter “ː.”

P. 5-12, §5.7.1: At the end of the paragraph, the following clarification should be added: “Use the termination indicator (6, 3), preceded and followed by a blank cell, to indicate a return to regular text.” In the PDF only, insert a period following first sentence of 5.7.1.

P. 5-18, Sample 5-2, simulated braille line 18: A blank line should be inserted.
Section 6

P. 6-2 and 6-3, §6.2.2b: Should read “If the original print copy does not use an identifier, each illustration is identified first, e.g., Photograph, Caption, Figure, with the identifier enclosed in Transcriber’s Note indicators. Word content follows on the same line after the identifier. No punctuation is needed between the two segments because the Transcriber’s Note indicator is sufficient separation.”

P. 6-8, §6.8: Section heading should read “Genealogical and Ancestral Charts”.

P.6-14, Sample 6-1: The transcriber’s description should follow the caption. Line 1 should begin with “Figure 7-1”, without transcriber’s note indicators, followed immediately by the caption. The source should start on line 7, cell 7, with runovers in cell 5. Line 9 should begin with "Drawing:" and conclude with the transcriber’s description.

P. 6-15, Sample 6-2, simulated braille line 9: “\\textit{Fig. 7-1}” should read “\\textit{Fig. 7-1}”.
